BIBLE STUDIES FOR LORD'S DAY WORK

For years I have seen the need of my brethren pulling out of the old channels of sectarianism and modern Sunday School literature, and the seven years skipping through the Bible as found in our International Sunday School literature. I have seen the need of a system of Bible studies in which the Bible could be read and the young could learn the plan of salvation as taught in the Bible, and then learn how to live that they may enter heaven.

In our present literature these things are not taught plain enough to be understood by the majority. I have suggested a three-years' course of Bible studies in these lessons, under the title of "Bible Studies," and shall send it forth as an evangelist to do good at all places where used.

We take up a three-years' course of New Testament study, asking questions for two years, and forcing the student to go to the Bible to find the answer. As many important items are connected with each lesson not answered in the chapter considered, you will find general questions at the close of each lesson, which we hope will cause much general reading and searching both Old and New Testaments for the answers.

After two years of studying the Bible in consecutive chapters we then spend a year on subjects, dealing with almost all practical points connected with the Christian system.

I do not examine Revelation in these lessons, as I am not well enough versed in that book to teach it.

These lessons are only suggestive to all churches of Christ. We hope to bring about more Bible study, more harmony and union among the children of God, to bring us nearer together and kill out the modern Sunday School idea, and our present system of International literature, which I think is five years wasted in seven.

This book is not a substitute for the Bible, but to help us to understand the Bible.

Nothing but ignorance and prejudice will cause my brethren to fight this book. My teaching in it is Scriptural, and I am ready and able to defend the same. Those who fight its teachings are not fighting me, but God, Christ and the Holy Scriptures as well.

In love submitted,

J. D. TANT

PART III

THIRD YEAR'S WORK—SUBJECT I

The New Testament

For two years we have been studying the New Testament. Now we come to study about the New Testament that we may get a general outline of its history, its authors, and its institutions.

There are twenty-seven books in the New Testament written by eight authors, five of whom were apostles. three not apostles, only missionary evangelists.

The New Testament has four divisions:

The first division is biographical, consisting of the gospel as written by four men. These men are Matthew. Mark. Luke, and John. They take up and examine the life work of the Son of God while on earth; his death, resurrection, last commission, and ascension.

John tells us all these things are written that we might believe that Jesus is the Christ, and in believing we might have life in his name (John 20:30, 31).

The second part of the New Testament is historical. This division embraces Acts of Apostles, gives an account of the baptism of the Holy Ghost, of Peter, preaching on Pentecost, of the establishment of the church, of the scattering abroad of the church, of Philip's preaching at Samaria, of Paul's conversion, of Peter's preaching to the Gentiles, of the disciples being called Christians first at Antioch, of the church sending Paul out as a missionary, and of his work and preaching.

In this book we find the plan of salvation and how people became members of the church in the apostolic age.

The third division of the New Testament is didactical and contains twenty-one letters of instruction to Christians. Fourteen of them are special letters, written to special congregations of men. Seven are general, written to Christians at large, telling them how to live.

The fourth division of the New Testament is prophetic, containing only the book of Revelation. This tells much of our future home after death.

The shepherds were told of his birth by a company of angels.

He was circumcised at eight days old and was presented to the Lord according to the law of Moses. He was visited by the wise men, was carried into Egypt to save his life, and returned after the death of Herod.

When twelve years old he went into the temple and disputed with the doctors, was found there by his mother, went home and obeyed his parents until thirty years old.

He then came to John and was baptized by him in Jordan. Was led into the wilderness and was tempted of the devil.

After this he came out and called his first followers and commenced his public life as a teacher.

At Capernaum he heals a demoniac and rebukes the Pharisees.

Then he teaches his famous lessons in parables as recorded in thirteenth chapter of Matthew.

Soon after this we find him stilling the storm at sea.

Then we find him casting the devils out of the man and sending them into the swine.

Then by reason of putting new wine into old bottles he teaches us that his law or gospel is not a patch on the old government, or law of Moses.

At Capernaum he heals an afflicted woman, raises the ruler's daughter; restores sight to two blind men and speech to one that is dumb.

This completes his second general trip among the people.

This lesson, perhaps, embraces more work than either of the former lessons. It takes up the work of the twelve. Then of Christ feeding five thousand. After this, we find him walking on the sea, then rebuking the Pharisees for their idea of pollution. We next find him becoming so popular in his teaching that the world began to ask and to form their opinions as to who he was. Then he asked his disciples who they thought he was. Peter then makes the noble confession, upon the truthfulness of which the church is founded today, that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

After this, we find him transfigured before some of the apostles. Then foretelling his own death.

We find him paying his taxes, showing that we should be subject to the government under which we live.

Then he visits the Feast of Tabernacles, after the Feast of Dedication, and arouses much ill feeling against himself for telling the Jews the truth.

We find his human nature shown at the grave of Lazarus in weeping with Martha and Mary. Then his divine nature exerts itself in raising Lazarus from the dead.

We then find him selecting seventy more men and sending them out to preach.

Then we see him again visiting Martha and Mary, healing ten lepers, teaching a young man the way of life, speaking again in parables, and giving sight to the blind at Jericho. This ends most of the travels of the Son of God, as the rest of his work is located around Jerusalem.

18. His ascension. Luke 24:50, 51.

This lesson brings us around the cross, there to study the events that had been foretold for 1500 years, and to learn the things that must be preached in all the world. Christ starts to the place of crucifixion, carrying his own cross, but gives down under its weight, and the burden is placed upon another to carry for him.

He is then placed on the cross with his accusation over him, stating that he was the king of the Jews.

They gave him vinegar to drink, and divided his garments among them. The passers-by mocked him. One of the thieves repented his wrongs and asked to be remembered in his kingdom.

The veil was rent, the sun refused to shine, the centurion declared he must be the Son of God.

He was buried in Joseph's new tomb, a guard was placed around the grave; an angel rolled the stone away, Jesus arose from the dead, and appeared at eleven different times.

He gave the great commission, then ascended to his Father. He was after this seen of Paul.

The disciples went to Jerusalem and remained there for the baptism of the Holy Spirit, that Christ had promised them to enable them to preach the gospel to all the world.

This closes the life work of Christ on earth.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 8

The Church of Christ

(READ ACTS 2)

1. A City. Matt. 5:14.
2. A Temple. 1 Cor. 3:16.
3. A Body. 1 Cor. 12:13.
4. A Family. Eph. 2:19.
5. A Vineyard. Matt. 20:1-16.
6. A Fold. John 10:16.
7. A Bride. Rom. 7:4.
8. A Mother. Isa. 66:8.

From the beginning of time, the greatness of nations has been known BY their large cities, and as all nations are controlled by their larger cities, the Son of God fitly represents his church as a city set upon a hill whose light should shine to all the country around. In her larger cities are often found her temples built upon rock foundations. Out of these temples proceed her laws that shall control that nation. He then claims not only is his church a city but also a temple that must not be defiled. As the separate stones in a temple are joined to make the many, one, he calls his church a body and every one members one of the another. But as there are different bodies on earth he claims church is the one body, and then tells what body this is by declaring we are no more strangers but one of the household of faith, or family of God.

Then to teach that this should be a working family he shows that the family is like a vineyard in which all are called to work, and receive the reward after the work is done. One servant, notwithstanding he was called and had opportunity, was so fearful he would displease his master, he did nothing and was rejected for idleness.

Then he shows that the church is the one fold with one shepherd, and one bride to the Son of God, and also represents the church as being our mother.

In all these figures of speech we can see the oneness in work, in relationship, in love, and in all things that go to make up the church as being the most desirable, the most perfect institution existing today among the children of men.

QUESTIONS

1. Describe a well located, and well governed city, and tell in what way the church should be like it.
2. Tell the object of temples, of what kind of stone they are made, and how can the church be like a temple?
3. Describe the members of the human body, show the position held by each member, and how the church is like a body.

5. Show the work done in a vineyard, and in what sense the church is like it.
6. Show the duty of a shepherd, the kind of a shepherd, and how the church is like a fold.
7. Tell the duties of a bride and show how the church is like her.
8. Is the bride dutiful who would wear some other man's name instead of her husband's name?
9. Describe the work of motherhood. What is necessary to make her children contented and happy?

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 9

Terms Used to Designate the Church

(READ 1 PETER 2)

1. A gathering of the people. Gen. 49:10.
2. A school of instruction. Isa. 2:2, 3.

3. A nation. Isa. 5:5-7.
4. A flock. John 10:10-16.
5. A church. Matt. 16:18.
6. A kingdom. Dan. 2:44.

Shortly before the death of Jacob, he called his sons around him to bless them, and to tell them what should befall them in the last days.

After declaring a lawgiver should not depart from Judah until Shiloh should come, he then represents the church of Christ as a "gathering of the people," as a people come together for some purpose.

Isaiah declared that when they came together, God would teach them of his ways, and we would walk in his path; for the law should go forth from Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. That this people should be a holy nation, and the nation should be represented as a little flock, and God would rule over them.

In confirmation of these facts Jesus declares he will build his church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. Daniel declares that this church shall be an everlasting kingdom and that Jesus would be our king. This kingly power was given him when he ascended and took his seat at the right hand of God, and we are subjects in the earthly province of his kingdom.

4. One window—Holy Scriptures.
5. One family—The whole family.
6. Safe in the ark—Saved in Christ.
7. Lost out of the ark—Lost out of Christ.

Examine the following Scriptures:

John 10:1-16; Eph. 3:15; 1 Pet. 2:5-7; 2 Tim. 3:14-17; Rom. 8:12; 2 Thess. 1:7-9.

In this lesson the ark is used as a type of the church.

Noah was not the only man who could have built an ark. Many men might have built arks that would look like the one Noah built. But God was behind the ark that Noah built and did not ordain any other.

In the building of this ark only one kind of timber was used. One door made and one window given. One family was to live in the ark. All were safe in the ark, for God had promised to protect them. All were lost outside the ark because God had not only promised salvation from the water to certain people, but he had located that salvation in the ark. He had marked the boundary lines as far as said salvation should extend, and all parties outside of said boundary lines were outside of the saving power of God; for God had located his saving power, hence they were lost.

QUESTIONS

1. How many arks were built by God's authority?
2. How many churches has Jesus on earth today?

14. How do we know God did not plant them? 2 Tim. 3:14-17.
15. Where does God promise to save us?
- x6. Whom did God destroy at the last day? 1 Peter 4:17.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 11

Christ the Head of His Church
(READ EPHESIANS 5)

Christ is referred to as:

1. A law giver. Rom. 8:1, 2.
2. A ruler. Matt. 25:21-34.
3. A captain. Heb. 2:10.
4. A teacher. John 3:2.
5. A leader. 1 Peter 2:21.
6. A shepherd. John 10:11.
7. A chief. Eph. 2:19, 20.
8. A head. Col. 1:18-24.

After learning that all types looked forward to one church, and not many churches, that Christ would establish, we now come to a closer study.

In this lesson we learn that Jesus is our law giver, and as he is to give laws to govern his people it becomes of interest to all to know these laws and to examine our own hearts to see if we can claim to be his children by the way we obey said laws.

Not only is he a law giver, but a ruler. We are to be ruled by said laws. As soldiers we recognize him as our captain.

As a captain teaches his soldiers and leads them to victory on the battlefield, Christ leads us. To show the care he has for us he claims to be our shepherd, our chief, and our head.

As all bodies are expected to be controlled by the head, the body, or church of Christ, can not be loyal to Christ, the head, unless its members do all the things he commands. As a lawgiver we show our love to him by the interest we take in his law.

As he is the leader and we are to follow, our faith is tested by the way we follow his commandments.

QUESTIONS

1. What kind of law does Jesus give?
2. Over what church does he rule?
3. How does he rule? Direct, or through his revealed law?
4. Christ as a captain—what army must he lead? .
5. As a teacher, what does he teach us?
6. Who was sent to do this teaching?

7. What society sent them out?
8. How does Christ lead his people?
9. As a shepherd, how many folds was he to have? John 10:16.
10. In this building Christ is said to be the chief corner-stone. What is the place and purpose of the corner-stone?
11. As a head, how many bodies was he to have?
12. Where does the Spirit dwell—in this body or out of it?
13. If the body is dead without the Spirit, and there is one body and one Spirit, and this one Spirit dwells in the one body, can a man get the Spirit in some human or sectarian church, or body, which is not the church of Christ?
14. If Jesus is the Savior of his body as taught in Eph. 5, and his church is his body as taught in Col. 1:24, then does a man have promise of salvation outside of this church or body?
15. Tell what man must do to get into this church where God has promised to save him?

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 12

The Establishment of the Church
(READ ACTS 1)

1. Christ the foundation truth. Matt. 3:17; 17:5.
2. Confessed by Peter. Matt. 16:16.
3. Acknowledged by Christ. Luke 22:70.
4. Proved by his resurrection. 1 Cor. 15:1-6.

11. God's house or church must be built in Jerusalem. Zech. 1:16.
12. Peter said this was the beginning. Acts 11:15.

In building all houses a foundation must be laid. When Paul referred to Christ, he presented him as being the only safe foundation that man could lay.

Isaiah claimed this foundation stone must first be tried. This was done in the trial, death, and resurrection of the Son of God.

It was upon this foundation confessed by Peter that Christ declared he would build his church, and that the gates of hell should not prevail against it.

Christ acknowledged he was the Son of God and proved it by his resurrection from the dead.

This truth was more fully confirmed by the living witnesses who saw him after his resurrection. To strengthen their testimony God sent the Spirit upon them to confirm all they said by the performing of miracles.

As this church was to be established at Jerusalem, as told by the prophets, we see the fulfillment of prophecy by their waiting at Jerusalem to get this power from on high.

Joel said the Spirit was to come upon them in the "last days." Peter not only calls it the "last days," but also calls it "the beginning," showing it to be the last days of Judaism and the beginning of Christianity.

Then this church becomes the body of Christ, becomes his bride—Rom. 7:4, is married to him, and brings forth spiritual children, who should spend their time in the service of the Lord.

QUESTIONS

1. Who is the foundation.
2. When was it to be laid?
3. Where was it to be laid?
4. Who first acknowledged Jesus as the Son of God?

8. Followers. Eph. 5:1.
9. Learners. John 6:45.
10. Sheep. John 10.
11. Family. Eph. 5:30.
12. Body. 1 Cor. 12:13.

This is sometimes called the church of God, or the churches of the first born. When we speak of it in the local sense, as different congregations at different places, we say the "churches of Christ."

The word church is used in two senses in the Bible. (1) In its general sense, to represent all the children of God as in Matt. 16:18. (2) In a local sense, as the church of God at Ephesus, or Corinth, or some designated place.

We generally speak of the "church of Christ" to denote authorship to show that Christ is the author and founder. Sometimes it is spoken of as the "Christian Church," but this can only be used in an accommodated sense, to show the relationship of all the members or to show that it is a church composed only of Christians. Still the expression "Christian church" is not found in the Bible, and it is absolutely safe to refer to it as the church of God or the church of Christ, and continue to follow Peter, who says, "If any man speak let him speak as the oracles of God."

As the church of Christ is composed of Christians, we should claim to be Christians only, and never wear any human or sectarian name.

As Christians we should be subject to Christ in all things, and as we are engaged in war we should be faithful soldiers and follow Christ.

As we follow him we should study to learn his will, and in learning his will he calls us his sheep, and declares we are of the family of God.

As a family we are all one body, members of his flesh and his bones.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 14

Church                      Membership
(READ EPH. 4)

1. Apostles. Acts 1:15-26.
2. Prophets. 1 Cor. 13:8-13.
3. Evangelists. 1 Tim. 4:6-16.
4. Elders. Acts 14:23; 20:13-28.
5. Deacons. 1 Tim. 3:8-13.
6. Teachers. Acts 13:1; Phil. 3:17.
7. Members. 1 Cor. 12:12-17.

There are two classes of officers in the church. One was for special purposes in the church while on earth, and still hold their original position, just like Christ, the head of the church. As such they have no successors. This class includes apostles and prophets, and their qualifications are stated in Acts 1:15-26; 1 Cor. 13:8-13.

These preachers were inspired, were not only law teachers but law givers, were able to perform miracles.

As soon as all truth God designed to be known was revealed, they had served their purposes, and ceased to continue on earth.

The other classes are evangelists, who are to continue to preach what the Holy Spirit through the prophets and apostles had revealed. They were to go into all the world and preach the gospel.

As they could not abide in one place, elders were ordained to help the work the evangelist had started by taking the oversight of the church. Deacons were added to assist the elders by looking after the widows and the financial interest of the church.

There were other teachers in the church who seemed to have no official work, but were expected to use their different gifts to edify the church, as taught in Romans, 12th chapter.

As to the members, all were members of the same body and members one of another. So they were instructed if one rejoiced, let all rejoice, if one had sorrow, let all weep with him that this church might do the will of God.

It was understood that this church with its elders, deacons, evangelists to work with its members was the only divine society God ordained and left on earth to do all Scriptural work. We had no big officers in the early church.

There were no human societies to do the work of the Lord, and no hired pastors to entertain the people.

QUESTIONS

1. Who were first set in the church?
2. Next class?
3. Who after them?
4. What is the work of an elder?
5. What is the work of a deacon?
6. What is the work of an evangelist?
7. What are the qualifications of an elder?
8. What are the qualifications of a deacon?
9. How must all members live?
10. When the local church has trouble, what power above the church must she appeal to for settlement?
11. Who supported the evangelists when sent out?
12. What board or society sent Paul and Barnabas out to preach?

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 15

Church                      Worship
(READ JOHN 4)

1. Praising God. Heb. 13:15.
2. Prayer. 1 Thess. 5:17.
3. Breaking of bread. Acts 20:7.
4. The above items constitute man's duty so far as worship is concerned in his church. The word worship means to honor, to adore, to bow down, to give supreme service to God.

David says, "Let the people praise thee." Ps. 50:23.

Not only am I required to praise God for his goodness, but I am to give thanks unto his name. David says, Offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay thy vows unto the Most High" Ps. 50:14. Again, "Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and unto his courts with praise" Ps. 104:40.

Closely associated with praise and thanksgiving for all of God's mercies, we must also solemnly engage in prayer. Paul says, "In everything by prayer and supplication With thanksgiving, let your requests be known unto God" Phil. 4:0.

Connected with the early church was the communion on the Lord's day. This was an individual matter, ordained by Christ. Matt. 26:26-28. It was practiced in the early church. Acts 2:42. It was observed upon the first day of the week as taught in Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:1, 2.

It was enjoined by Paul to be continued until Christ should come. 1 Cor. 11:23-30. This was the manner of worship in the apostolic times. All of this worship all could engage in. Preaching was sometimes done, incidentally, at the place of worship. But to come together to hear preaching, for the purpose of being entertained, as much of the modern preaching is done for that purpose, did not belong to the primitive church.

QUESTIONS

1. In church worship, whom must I praise?
2. For what must I praise?
3. If I get up a human society and praise God in it. should I not praise this society?
4. For what should I thank God?
5. For what must I pray?
6. How must I pray If I hope to have my prayer answered?
7. How can I pray in faith?
8. When I pray for a blessing God has promised, when can I expect to get it?
9. If God's blessings are promised at certain places upon certain conditions, and I pray for God to give them to me in other places on other conditions, will my prayer be answered?
10. Why not?
11. If God promises to save me in the church, and states faith and baptism as conditions of said salvation, can I believe God and pray for these blessings elsewhere and upon other conditions?
12. Then, if I offer such prayers, am I worshipping God?
13. If all must meet to break bread, what condemnation comes upon those who wilfully stay away? Heb. 10:22-30.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 16

Church                      Work
(READ COL. 3)

1. Preaching. Mark 16:15.
2. Teaching. Matt. 28:20.
3. Study. Acts 17:14.
4. Singing. Col. 3:16.

5. Exhortation. 1 Tim. 6:2.
6. Giving. 2 Cor. 9:7.
7. Charity. Acts 10:38.

While many of the above items can hardly be separated from worship, yet they properly come under the head of church work. Any one can do each or all, of these items and at the same time not worship God. Yet no one can properly do the items mentioned in the preceding lesson, viz., praising God, thanksgiving, prayer, and breaking bread, without worshipping God. I make the distinction to more forcibly teach the lesson.

God ordained the church with power and authority to preach the gospel to all the world. After men were converted, then they were to be taught to observe "all things" commanded by Christ. To enable them to know these things the church had to study them. In their study and work they were to teach and admonish each other by singing and making melody in their hearts, to exhort one another to love and good works. All, not some, were commanded to give as they had been prospered, and as they had opportunity they were commanded to do good unto all men.

Each act of work and worship mentioned in the above two lessons can be done as acts of faith because God commands them.

"Whatsoever is not of faith is sin," and many things are practiced today which are sins because not commanded of God.

QUESTIONS

1. Who are commanded to preach?
2. What must they preach?
3. What woe is pronounced upon a man whose does not preach the gospel?
4. What much a church be taught to observe?
5. Mention the "all things."
6. What should we study? Why?
7. Why should we sing?
8. Can we sing as an act of faith?
9. Why?
10. Who should give?
11. How much must we give?
12. When should we give?
13. How must we give?
14. Why should I give?
15. What blessing does God promise to a man who gives liberally?

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 17

The United Church (READ EPH. 4)

1. One God. 1 Cor. 8:6.
2. One Lord. Eph. 4:5.
3. One Spirit. 2 Cor. 12:18.
4. One Faith. 2 Pet. 1:1.
5. One Hope. Heb. 6:18-20.
6. One Baptism. Eph. 4:5.
7. One Body. 1 Cor. 12:20.

The apostle, Paul, in writing to the church at Ephesus exhorts them to strive to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. In this unity he mentions seven single items, and it is just as unscriptural to argue that we have two or more of each of these as it is to argue we have two or more Bible churches. Paul says there is one God and no one can please God if he argues there are more than one. He says there is one Spirit, one hope; one Lord, and one faith. Any man would be condemned if he should go out and argue that we have more than one of any of these. He says there is one baptism, but some, not being satisfied with God's law, argue that we can practice three or four baptisms and be on the safe side. Not only is this taught, hut it is a popular idea that there are many churches, and while no church holds all the good, yet there is enough good in each church to save almost all who belong to them.

To argue that men could have looked at some other snake than the one Moses made; that men could have gotten into some other ark than the one Noah made; that Naaman could have been healed in some other river than the Jordan, is just as reasonable as it is to argue that men can be saved out of the church that Jesus purchased with his own blood.

QUESTIONS

1. How many Gods?
2. How many Lord?
3. How many faiths?
4. How many hopes?
5. How many Spirits?
6. How many baptisms?
7. How many bodies?
8. How do you know this body is the church? Please give proof.
9. How do you know one baptism means water baptism
10. How do you know the church of Christ to which you belong is the one Christ established?
11. What church did Christ establish?
12. Give proof.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 18

Gospel                      Obedience (READ ACTS 3)

1. Whom must we hear? Matt. 17:5.
2. How must we hear? Heb. 2:1.
3. What must we hear? Matt. 7:24.
4. Why do some people not hear? Acts 28:27.
5. In what manner must we hear? James 1:19.
6. What depends upon our hearing? Rom. 10:17.

After examining the life of Christ and the church he established we now come to examine the law that God requires all to obey in order to be saved.

All agree that the sinner has wandered from God, and must come back to him before he can be reconciled or received back into God's family. As God makes the conditions upon which the sinner can come and be saved, we now propose to examine these conditions, closely, step by step, so all can learn what God requires them to do to be saved.

Under the old dispensation people had to hear Moses and the prophets, but Moses taught that when Jesus came we must hear him in all things. Deut. 18.

So if we learn how to be saved we must hear Christ. In hearing him, I hear the gospel and in hearing the gospel I must believe what I hear. Thus my faith depends upon my hearing, and if a man has Scriptural faith he must have heard the gospel. If I ever come to Christ, where I can be saved, I must start by hearing the word of God, that I may understand it and believe the same.

QUESTIONS

1. What must a man hear to be saved?
2. Why do not all hear the gospel?
3. Whom must a man hear to be saved?
4. If one cannot be saved until he has faith, how must his faith come?
5. Moses says I must hear Christ in all things he commands. If I refuse to accept part of his teaching can I be saved?
6. What does he say about keeping the whole law, and offending in one point?
7. When people heard and obeyed the gospel in apostolic times, what did it make them?
8. To what church did the Lord add them?

9. Then if we find people something else than Christians, and belonging to some other church than the church of Christ, can they claim to have heard the gospel?
10. What does God threaten to do with all those who will not hear him in all things he commands? Acts 3:22-23.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 19

Gospel                      Faith
(READ ACTS 15)

1. What is faith? Heb. 11:1.
2. Who must believe? Rom. 10:14-15.
3. What must they believe? Jno. 20:30-31.
4. When must they believe? 2 Cor. 6:2.
5. How must they believe? Rom. 10:17.
6. Why must they believe? Heb. 11:6.
7. Result of not believing. Mark 16:16.

In the salvation of the sinner God has made faith a condition of salvation, and states that without faith it is impossible to please God. So all who desire to be saved must learn what faith is, or what they must believe in order to be saved.

In Heb. 11:1 Paul teaches that faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Also in the sixth verse of same chapter he teaches that without faith it is impossible to please God.

After learning what faith is, and that without it a man cannot please God, I next ask, what must a man believe in order to be saved. John says, "These are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name."

Next when must I believe? "Today is the accepted time." So it is best not to wait for a future time to do what God wants me to do now.

I also learn that I am required to believe what I hear. As faith comes by hearing the word of God it is necessary to have the word of God preached that I may hear the same.

If I have not faith, I cannot please God, if I disbelieve him, not only does it displease him, but he teaches I shall be condemned. All parties becoming Christians are required by the law of God to believe will) all their hearts that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God.

QUESTIONS

1. What is faith?
2. Who must believe?
3. What must they believe?
4. What does God require us to believe?
5. Why should we believe?
6. What will be the consequences if I fail to believe?
7. What is the difference in faith and "faith only"?
8. When was Abraham justified by faith?
9. When are we justified by faith?

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 20

Gospel                      Repentance
(READ LUKE 24)

1. Author—God. Acts 5:31.
2. Subjects—All men. Acts 17:30.
3. Blessing—Life. Acts 11:18.
4. Why must we repent? Luke 13:5.
5. How did Nineveh repent? Jonah 3:10.

Our next lesson in the scheme of redemption is repentance.

John the Baptist came preaching repentance; for the kingdom of heaven was at hand. Jesus taught the same. God granted repentance unto life. The goodness of God leads to repentance and godly sorrow worketh repentance. As to the necessity of it Jesus taught "Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish."

In the first gospel sermon preached on earth after the Holy Ghost came upon the apostles, Peter commanded the people to repent.

As to what we do in repenting Christ gave an example of repentance in stating the case of Jonah's preaching to Nineveh. We turn back there and find they quit their wicked ways. So in order for a man to repent he must be sorry enough for his sins to quit them.

QUESTIONS

1. Who ordered repentance?
2. Who must repent?
3. Why must a man repent?
4. Which comes first, repentance or faith?
5. If faith comes first, why did Christ and Paul always name repentance first when connected with faith?
6. Which comes first, repentance or spiritual life?
7. Why did not Paul tell the jailor to repent if repentance is essential to salvation? Acts 16:31.
8. If faith is an equal condition of salvation, why did not Peter tell the people on Pentecost to have faith? Acts 2:37.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 21

The Good Confession (READ ROMANS 10)

1. Who must confess Christ? Phil. 2:11.
2. Why must we confess him? Matt. 10:32.
3. Who first made the confession? Matt. 3:17.
4. Before whom did Christ make it? 1 Tim. 6:13.
5. When did Peter make it? Matt. 16:16.
6. When are we to make it? Acts 8:36.
7. Is it before or after salvation? Rom. 10:8-10.

In following up the scheme of redemption we have learned that a man must hear God's word, have faith in Christ, repent of his sins. Now follows the confession, which must precede salvation, according to Paul in Romans 10:10.

We notice that God requires a man to confess Christ and not himself. He must make this confession UNTO and never BECAUSE OF salvation. In Acts 8 we find this confession was required as a requisite to baptism. If some claim that Acts 8:37 is spurious, still that does not change the truthfulness of the confession, as Jesus taught it by example by making it before Pilate and Paul teaches it must precede salvation.

QUESTIONS

1. Who first made the confession?
2. Who acknowledged it before Pilate?
3. What blessing was pronounced upon Peter for making it?
4. What did John's converts confess? Mark 1:5.
5. If we are ashamed to make it, what does Christ say?
6. Why not make it because of salvation instead of unto salvation? 2 Tim. 2:5.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 22

Hebrews 11, 12 and 18 Scriptural Baptism (READ ACTS 22)

1. Who must be baptized? Mark 16:16.
2. Where must they be baptized? Jno. 3:23.

3. When must they be baptized? Acts 16:33.
4. Why must they be baptized? Acts 2:38.
5. How must they be baptized? Rom. 6:1-4.
6. For what must they be baptized? 1 Pet. 3:21.

We now come to the subject of Scriptural baptism as taught by the Son of God. To all people who believe the Bible this is not a hard subject to understand. The Bible being our authority, it is just as easy to prove that baptism is a condition of salvation, and that it is for the remission of sins, as it is to prove that Christ is the Son of God, or to prove there is only one God; for the same Bible that mentions one mentions the others in as plain and strong terms.

QUESTIONS

1. Who is commanded to be baptized?
2. What did Christ say about baptism in John 3:5?
3. Why did John baptize in Aenon?
4. Where did Philip and the eunuch go before baptism?
5. Where did they come after baptism?
6. In Romans 6, how did Paul say we are baptized?
7. What did Christ say about baptism in Mark 16:16?
8. What did Peter tell them to be baptized for in Acts 2:38?
9. Why was Paul commanded to be baptized? Acts 22:16.
10. What did Peter say about baptism in 1 Pet. 3:21?

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 23

Faithfulness

(READ 2 PETER 1)

Faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance, patience, godliness, brotherly kindness and charity.

We have examined Scriptural obedience, and have learned what a man must do to become a Christian.

To become a Christian and to become a member of the church of Christ had the same meaning in the days of the apostles. To become a Christian, and to become a member of the church, express the same idea, just like it does to say a man becomes a married man when he becomes a husband.

Becoming a Christian is only entering upon a new relationship, and a man's future destiny is to be determined by how he lives after becoming a child of God. Christ said to the Jews, "If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." John 8:31, 32. Then this truth God has ordained I shall continue in requires me to add to my faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and thus continue to add until I reach the end of the mentioned graces. Then comes a promise of a abundant entrance into the eternal home of God.

QUESTIONS

1. What must I add to my faith?
2. What is virtue?
3. What must be added to virtue?
4. What kind of knowledge?
5. What must I add to knowledge?
6. In what must I be temperate?
7. What must I add to temperance?
8. What to patience? To godliness? To brotherly kindness? To charity?
9. If I do not do so what will be the result?
10. If I add these things what does God promise to do?

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 24

The Bible Church. Her Eldership

(READ 1 TIMOTHY 3)

- (1) Elders. (2) Their desire. (3) Their experience. (4) Their wives.
(5) Their children. (6) Their influence. (7) Their work. (8) Their power.

In the Bible church we find that God, in order to have the work carried on when the apostles and evangelists were not here, had elders ordained in every church. Acts 14:23.

These elders, thus ordained were to have the oversight of the church and feed the flock of God. Acts 20:17-28.

These elders must have faithful children, must be well spoken of, must take their work willingly, must not be covetous, must not be self-willed, and must be a lover of good men. These elders had to be supported when they spent their whole time teaching the word. 1 Tim. 5:17. When an elder did wrong, the members were not to believe an evil report against him only as reported by two or three witnesses. 1 Tim. 5:19.

The duty of these elders was to teach the church of God, look out for bad men, and to keep the church pure. Today, at many places, the Bible elders have been supplanted by the modern pastor who is hired to entertain the people instead of spiritually feeding them the word of God.

QUESTIONS

1. What was Titus to do? Titus 1:5.
2. What kind of a man must an elder be?
3. How many wives must he have?
4. What kind of children must he have?
5. How should he rule?
6. Should he be supported?
7. Should he desire this work?
8. What was he to feed the flock of God?
9. How was he to rule the flock?

Carefully examine, Acts 20:17-28; Acts 16:4; 1 Pet. 5:1-6.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 25

The Bible Church. Her Deacons (READ ACTS 6)

In the Bible church the work accumulated on the apostles so fast that it was more than they could do to look after the spiritual and financial interests of the church.

When complaints came to them about certain widows, who should be cared for by the church, being neglected, the apostles told them to look out seven men, full of the Holy Ghost, and they would set these men over the work.

This was done, and it seems their work became of so much importance that they were retained in the church. Their qualifications are given, their work is designated, and when Paul wrote to the church at Philippi, not only does he address his letter to the elders, but mentions the deacons also. Phil. 1:1.

It seems from what information we gain from the Bible, that the deacons generally looked after the financial condition of the church, while the elders looked after the spiritual or doctrinal work of the same.

QUESTIONS

1. What kind of a man must a deacon be?
2. How must he hold the gospel?
3. How must he enter his office?
4. What kind of wife must he have?
5. What kind of children must he have?
6. Mention one deacon who became a successful preacher

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 26

The Bible Church. Her Evangelists (READ 2 TIMOTHY 4)

So far we have learned that the Bible church contained, officers, elders and deacons.

We now come to examine not the office, but the work of an evangelist

It seems the evangelist came close after the apostles and prophets, and his mission was that of work. The work of an evangelist is simply proclaiming the gospel. In apostolic days the evangelist was sometimes an apostle, sometimes a deacon and sometimes neither.

Judging from his work, it seems to be about the same work as our present missionaries do. He would have to go, or be sent out to preach the gospel, to baptize, to establish congregations, set in order the things wanting, and ordain elders in every city.

Paul in instructing the evangelist, tells him:

1. He must keep himself pure.
2. He must behave in the house of God.
3. He must give himself to reading, to study and to prayer.
4. He must reprove and rebuke.
5. He must be a pattern of good works.
6. He must teach all classes how to act.
7. He must ordain elders when needed.
8. He must teach the gospel and baptize men and women.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 27

The Bible Church. The Work of an Evangelist. Paul
(READ ACTS 13)

We have now examined the life of Christ, the establishment of the church the plan of salvation, the duty of Christians, and the officers of the church.

We now desire to study the church as an independent missionary society, with Paul the first missionary ever sent out.

The church of Christ at Antioch selected Paul, Barnabas, and Mark and sent them all off to preach the gospel. They first stopped at Seleucia, then on to Cyprus, and next to Salamis. Then they traveled one hundred miles on the island of Cyprus. Here Paul struck Elymus blind and converted the deputy. They then went to Perga in Asia Minor. From here John Mark returned home, and Paul went to Antioch. Here the Jews rejected them. They then went to Iconium and remained there a long time, made many converts, were stoned by a mob, and departing went to Lystra, where Paul healed a cripple. They were treated as gods until the Jews followed them and had them stoned. From there they went to Derbe, then to Perga, then back to Antioch from where they started. They made a full report of all their work and remained with the church six or seven years before taking another missionary trip. Thus we see the church at Antioch became the first missionary society God ordained to send out an evangelist. He went out without any human society or board behind him, and preached the gospel in ten cities then returned and reported the work of the church that sent him out. This was the work of an evangelist.

Commence at Acts 13th chapter and study carefully the 13th and 14th chapters and follow Paul to each of the ten cities, and tell what was done at each place.

Let the teacher ask about the work in each city until their return.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 28

The Bible Church at Work
(READ ACTS 15, 16, 17. 13)

Paul's second missionary journey in company with Silas.

Paul took Silas and first went to Syria and Cilicia; then to Derbe and Lystra. At Lystra Paul circumcised Timothy and took him with him. He then visited Phrygia and Galatia, where he fell sick. Then to Mysia and from there to Troas. Here he had a vision inviting him to Macedonia. Leaving Troas he went to Neapolis, and then to Philippi, where he converted Lydia and the jailer. Here Paul left Timothy and Luke and went next to Thessalonica and from there to Berea. thence to Athens where he delivered his great sermon found in Acts 17. Next to Corinth where he remained near two years, was joined by Silas and Timothy and wrote his two letters to Thessalonica; converted Aquila and Priscilla and then went to Ephesus, then to Caesarea and back to Antioch to the church that first sent him out.

On this trip Paul visited and preached the gospel in sixteen cities.

Let the teacher mark out the cities in their order and let the class learn what was done at each place and give reference for the same.

Study carefully the occurrences mentioned in 16th, 17th and 18th chapters of Acts.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 29

Paul's Third Missionary Trip (READ ACTS 18 to 21)

We now find the church at Antioch sending Paul, with Timothy, on his third missionary trip. He goes first to Galatia and Phrygia; then to Ephesus, where he teaches and rebaptizes some of John's converts who had been converted and baptized by Appollos, who, himself had been converted to the church by Aquila and Priscilla.

Paul remained at Ephesus for a long time teaching in the school of Tyrannus, wrote one letter to Galatia and one to Corinth while there. When he had aroused much prejudice he went to Greece, then to Philippi, then to Troas, then to Assos, then to Mitylene, then to Trogyllium and on to Miletus where he sent for the elders at Ephesus and gave them his farewell address. Then he went to Patura, Tyre, Ptolemais, Caesarea, and then to Jerusalem where the apostles and elders had him to purify himself. Here he was arrested, had many trials, which ends his active work as an evangelist.

On this last trip we notice sixteen cities Paul had visited and preached in. Examine and learn what was done at each city.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 30

Paul a Prisoner (READ ACTS 26)

So far we have examined the apostolic church in its evangelistic work, and have found that the church at Antioch sent out its evangelist, and had the gospel preached in more than thirty cities.

Today we have more than 2,000 churches in America. Each church is able to select a man, locate him, support him and his family, and send him out all the time. If each man would preach the gospel in as many cities as Paul did, in a few years 60,000 cities of America would hear the gospel.

This would do away with the hired pastor, and with the ten days' meeting in July and August.

This would locate our gospel preachers and let them become permanent factors for good where they live. This would throw us back to Bible practice, and without any society save the church of God; in fifty years all the world would be evangelized.

The gospel went from Jerusalem to Antioch; then to Galatia, Philippi, Corinth, Thessalonica and Rome. Here Paul closed his life, declaring he had fought a good fight, finished his course, kept the faith, and charged Timothy to preach the gospel. He says a crown of righteousness was waiting his coming, and all who would do God's will.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 31

Church Discipline
(READ MATTHEW 18)

In the teachings of Christ and the Holy Spirit not only are we told what we must do to be saved, or become members of the church, but we are also told how we must act in case two members get into trouble, in case some members do not bear fruit, in case some members will not work, or withhold part of their income from the Lord, or sin, or teach false doctrine, etc.

No church can claim to be a scriptural church that will not maintain discipline in its membership. If the church remains spiritual they should through their officers, examine the moral, financial and spiritual condition of all the members. When they find any living immoral, or unscriptural, or covetous they should try to restore them, and when they refuse to be disciplined then Paul says to withdraw from every brother that walks disorderly.

QUESTIONS

1. If a brother offends me what must I do? Matt. 18:15.
2. If he will not hear me, what must I do? Matt. 18:16.

6. If a brother commits fornication what must we do with him? 1 Cor. 5:1-6.
7. If a man is a fornicator, an extortioner, is covetous, a drunkard, or a railer, what must the church do with him? 1 Cor. 5:11.

9. If a brother will not work must he be supported? 2 Thess. 3:10.
10. What must a church do with all members who walk disorderly? 2 Thess. 3:6.
11. Is it orderly to meet for worship on the first day of the week and to contribute as God has prospered us? Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 16:2.
12. If a brother refuses to do these things what must be done?

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 32

Discord Among Brethren
(READ ROMANS 14)

In the establishment of the church of Christ, the whole teaching of the New Testament is to impress us that we should all be perfectly joined together, and to speak the same thing.

So Christ, in his prayer, prayed that all his followers might be one.

This was the instruction of Paul to (the church at Corinth. Peter, in his general letter, tells us how this can be done, by speaking as the oracles of God speak.

All things that God commands me to do, and I do them, I can do so as an act of faith. Yet I may do some things innocent within themselves but if said things are not commanded they do not come under the head of faith, and Paul teaches, "Whatsoever is not of faith is sin."

If, in the doing of these things. I offend the brethren, or sow discord among them, God says he will hate me, that I am not doing his will, and he calls upon the church to mark me.

Christ says it would be better if I were cast into the sea than to offend one of his children.

QUESTIONS

1. Does God command me to read? Col. 4; 16
2. To pray? 1 Thess. 5:17.
3. To exhort? 1 Tim. 4:13.
4. To eat the Lord's supper. Acts 20:7.

10. To eat meat with the bread and wine?
11. To wash my hands at the communion service?
12. To sprinkle children?
13. To play on an organ, or other musical instruments in worship?
14. If God does not command these things, then they are not of faith. What does Paul say about them? Rom. 14:23.
15. If they cause division, what does Paul say to do? Rom. 16:17-18.
16. If they sow discord, what does God say about it? Prov. 6:19.
17. If such causes my brother to stumble, or offend, how much must I do? Rom. 14:14-21.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 33

Evil Speaking
(READ JAMES 3)

James teaches that the tongue is a small member, yet full of deadly poison; that it is worse than any serpent or wild animal; that it often controls the body; that it needs to be watched and controlled; that, though small it may kindle a great fire and give us much trouble.

So one of the first lessons, and perhaps the hardest lesson, a young Christian must learn is to educate himself to control the tongue.

Many men have been killed, many poor girls have been ruined, many families broken up, many separations have come, and many churches have been wrecked just because some members had too much tongue.

So if we will take up some of the evils the tongue brings upon us, and study how to avoid them, this will greatly help us to enlarge our usefulness and do more good in life and give us a grander hope of heaven.

QUESTIONS

1. What does Solomon say about evil speaking? Prov. 26:20-28.
2. Why does Paul say we must put from us? Eph. 4:25.
3. Quote Titus 3:2.

7. What does Peter say we must lay aside? 1 Pet. 2:1.
8. What must we do to live long and see good days? 1 Pet. 3:9-10.
9. Why did God condemn the people of Lot's town? 2 Pet. 2:7-10.
10. What does Jude say about evil speaking? Jude 8.
11. How long will evil speaking last? Prov. 12:5-19.
12. If we give attention to evil speaking, what kind of people are we? Prov. 17:4-20.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 34

Slander
(READ JAMES 4)

Closely connected with evil speaking is slander, and behind slander we find the slanderer, both of which are bitterly condemned in the Old and New Testaments.

Many people not only speak evil of their brethren, but also circulate false reports without investigating to see if said report be true. They tell them in such a manner as to harm the brother or sister, forgetting that Jesus plainly teaches the things that we do to one of his children the same WE do to him.

If, then we can find out what slander is, and how it is condemned by the God of heaven, and we are striving to do his will, we must educate ourselves not to do the things condemned by him, or that will deprive us of heaven after death.

QUESTIONS

1. What did Moses say of slander? Ex. 23:1-2.
2. What does James say about it? James 4:11.
3. What does Timothy say about evil surmising? Tim. 6:4-5.
4. What does Moses say about tale-bearing? Lev. 19:16.
5. What did Solomon say about a slanderer? Prov. 10:18.
6. What does slander do to God's ministers? Rom. 3:8.
7. What does God say about women being slanderers? 1 Tim. 3:11; Tit. 2:3.
8. What do the words of a slanderer do? Prov. 18:8.
9. When does strife cease? Prov. 26:20.
10. How can a man walk disorderly? 2 Thess. 3:11.
11. How should we treat a tale bearer? Prov. 20:19.
12. With what evil persons does God class a busy body? 1 Pet. 4:15.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 35

Covetousness

(READ 1 TIMOTHY 6)

In the fifth chapter of Galatians Paul lays down seventeen sins and says plainly those who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

Among those sins he mentions adultery, fornication, and drunkenness. If a man or woman, openly continues to commit these things, I have yet to find a congregation that will fellowship them. He mentions an equal sin and calls it idolatry. In Col. 3:5 he says covetousness is idolatry. Then 11 covetousness is as great a sin as drunkenness, murder and adultery, and the Bible teaches that it is, it seems we should be studying more along this line; for I find it more prevalent in the church today than any other sin. I find brethren are covetous, making all kinds of deals for money. Extortioners! Yet I have never known a church to withdraw fellowship from a man guilty of these crimes and I find them in almost every church.

But let us learn what the Bible says on it.

1. With what sins did Paul class covetousness? Rom. 1:29.
2. With what other crimes did the law put covetousness? Rom. 13:9.
3. What did Jesus say would defile a man? Mark 7:21-23.
4. What did Paul say to do with a covetous man? 1 Cor. 5:11.
5. What did Paul write the church at Ephesus about covetousness? Eph. 5:3-5.
6. What did Paul say we must mortify? Col. 3:2-6.
7. How did Paul say many walked? Phil. 3:18-19.
8. What qualification did Paul say an elder should have? 1 Tito. 3:3; Titus 1:7.
9. How must we talk? Heb. 13:5.
10. How did Peter say some would do the gospel? 2 Pet. 2:3-16.
11. What did John say about covetousness? 1 Jno. 2:15-17.
12. What did Jude say? Judge 11.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 36

Giving

(READ 2 COR. 8)

As covetousness is the soil out of which selfishness grows, and as God condemns covetousness equal to any sin, it behooves us to know how WE may so act to escape the sin of covetousness.

Some things we should learn:

1. All we have is not ours, but is given us by God to see what use we make of it. In the parable of the talents the man who improved what he had God gave him more.
2. All sacrifices we make are not to benefit God but for our own good.
3. The more we give the more God has promised to prosper us.
4. We must not only give liberally, but cheerfully, if we please God.
5. To do God's will we must give as we have been prospered. If a man has been prospered $100,000 and he gives as though he had been prospered $50.00 he lies to God like Ananias and Sapphira did.
6. The Jews gave one-tenth of all they made. They gave according to law. God's law of prosperity should not be less.

QUESTIONS

1. What did Christ say about giving? Luke 6:38.
2. What did Paul say to the church at Ephesus about giving? Acts 20:35.
3. If a man gives spiritual things to a church in what should the church reward him? Rom. 15:27.
4. What custom did Paul tell them to follow in giving? 1 Cor. 16:1-2.
5. Whom else had he thus commanded?
6. How did God promise to bless the giver? 2 Cor. 9:6-13.
7. To whom should we give? Eph. 4:28.
8. Whom should the church support? 1 Tim. 5:16.
9. How should the rich give? 1 Tim. 6:17.
10. How must we give? Philemon 14.
11. Who must give? 1 Cor. 16:2; Gal. 6:6.
12. What does John say about giving? 1 Jno. 3:17.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 37

Walking With God

(READ 2 COR. 5)

In coming into the church, we are commanded, as we have received the Lord Jesus to walk in him, and in walking in him we are to walk by the same rule, and in walking by the same rule Paul teaches we walk by faith and not by sight. As no one is expected to walk unless being led by some one, we find that the sons of God are led by the Spirit of God.

In being led by the Spirit of God we find that Enoch walked so perfectly with God that he was the friend of God in so much that God did not let him die but translated him to heaven without his tasting death.

Then, as all Christians are expected to walk in Christ it may be well to have some light thrown upon our pathway so we can see how to walk and where to walk that we may know that we are walking with Christ.

QUESTIONS

1. How must we not walk? 1 Jno. 1:6.
2. How must we walk? 1 Jno. 1:7.
3. How did John say some members walked? 3 Jno. 3.
4. What did Paul say about living in the spirit? Gal. 5:25.
5. What did Paul say about a rule? Phil. 3:16.
6. What did Paul say about a new life? Rom. 6:4.
7. What did he say about honesty? Rom. 13:13.
8. What did Paul say about faith? 2 Cor. 5:7.
9. In what kind of faith must we walk? Rom. 4:12.
10. If I do not walk by faith what does God say about my walk? Rom. 14:23.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 38

Running on the Narrow Way

(READ HEB. 12)

Church members are not only commanded to walk with God, but also are expected to run.

On account of the rush of business, close competition, and fast living there never was a time on earth that the church needed to educate all her members to run in ways of usefulness more than at the present time.

Not only has God ordained that we shall run, but he has also located the road upon which we must run, and has told what we must do to get on this road. Then he tells us how we must run, and no man can hope to please God if he does not run where God has ordained.

God tells us there is only one road upon which we can run that will lead to life. God has seen fit to run this road through his church, and no man is running on the narrow way who is not running through the church, and no man is running on the narrow way who is not running through the church that Jesus purchased with his blood.

We have learned about the church of God, and what we must do to get on that narrow way, or into the church.

Now we ask:

1. How must we run?
2. For what must we run? 1 Cor. 9:24-2C.
3. How did Paul say he had run? Phil. 2:16.
4. How did the Galatian brethren run at first? Gal. 5:7.
5. How did David say he had run? Ps. 119:32.
6. How did Paul tell the Hebrew brethren they must run? Heb. 12:1.
7. Why did the Gentiles speak evil of the Christians? 1 Pet. 4:4.
8. What blessing does God promise those who run on the right way? Prov. 4:12.
9. What does Isaiah say about those who run as God directs? Isa. 40:31.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 39

Christian Soldiers (READ EPH. 6)

In the church of Christ we find it is not only a life of action, but It is A battle of life.

God has ordained I must fight and that I must fight according to his commands.

In his army I must enlist, I must put on the armour of God, and then I must fight with the weapon he has given me and be subject to my Captain in all things.

It might be well to emphasize the thought that God requires me to enlist in his army, not in some sectarian army. I have no more promise of being rewarded after the battle is over if I enlist in some sectarian army than one could have had of salvation from the flood out of Noah's ark and in some other ark; or than one could have from being cured of snake bite by looking at some other snake than the one Moses made. So I must fight as a soldier in the army of the Lord.

1. State all things I must do to become a scriptural soldier.
2. What must I put on? Eph. 6:11.
3. What part goes on the loins? Eph. 6:14.
4. What part on the breast? Eph. 6:14.
5. What on the feet? Eph. 6:15.
6. What shield must I wear? Eph. 6:16.
7. What must I wear on my head? Eph. 6:17.
8. With what must I fight? Eph. 6:17.
9. What kind of fight did Paul make? 2 Tim. 4:7.
10. Was Paul uncertain in his battles? 1 Cor. 9:26.
11. What kind of warfare was Timothy commanded to make? 1 Tim. 1:18.
12. What became of some who did not make this war? 1 Tim. 1:19-20.
13. What did Timothy include in "the good fight of faith"? 1 Tim. 6:11-14.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 40

Scriptural Marriage
(READ ROMANS 7)

Marriage is ordained of God, and when Scripturally consummated it is the happiest state of men and women in this life.

Marriage has been practiced in some form in all ages, among all people. It is a scriptural institution in which all Christians should be interested. All young people intend to engage in it, then why not study God's word along that line?

Thousands of unscriptural marriages are being entered into every year. Hundreds of our young people are marrying out of Christ, thinking such is no harm. Observation teaches me that three out of every four who do so lose their interest in the church of Christ, and as God teaches we reap what we sow, it is time we were being educated on this subject.

The sons of God marrying the daughters of men was one of the things that brought on the flood. Gen. 6:2. When God selected his people he told them plainly they should not allow their sons and daughters to marry out of God's people, and tells the reason why. Deut. 7:3-7. They violated this law, were driven from God, and when they came back to God they had to put away their strange wives. Nehemiah 13:23. This was among the great sins of Solomon. Neh. 13:26.

Under Christ Paul tells us not to be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. 2 Cor. 6:14-18 He says the widows shall marry only in the Lord. 1 Cor. 7:39.

So a Christian is on absolutely safe ground to marry only in the Lord.

QUESTIONS

1. What relationship does husband and wife sustain? Mark 10:8.
2. Of what is a man guilty who puts away his wife and marries again? Luke 16:18.
3. How long is a woman bound to her husband? Rom. 7:2.
4. How many exceptions to this rule did Christ give?
5. How many wives must an elder or a deacon have? 1 Tim. 3:2.
6. If a wife departs from her husband what does Paul say about her marrying again? 1 Cor. 7:11.
7. If a husband or a wife departs from their companion on account of their companion being a Christian, what does Paul say about it? 1 Cor. 7:12-16.
8. Which should rule, the man or the woman? Eph. 5:22. Why? Eph. 5:23.
9. What relationship does the church sustain to Christ? Rom. 7:1-4.
10. If the church is married to Christ, and she is his body then how many churches or bodies does he have? Eph. 4:4; Col. 1:24.
11. When can a man or woman marry the second time and not violate God's law? Rom. 7:2.
12. How must they marry? 1 Cor. 7:29.

THIRD YEAR -- SUBJECT 41

What is a Christian?

(READ JOHN 15)

In our subject lesson we have examined the life work of Christ, the establishment of his kingdom, her officers and the work of her evangelists, the discipline of her members, and the life work of all who may desire to be members of the same.

We now come to ask the plain simple question, what is a Christian? Not what I must do to become one, but what is one in all the different works of Christianity; and is there sufficient inducement held out to cause one to desire to be a Christian, and finally reach heaven as his home?

A Christian is:

QUESTIONS

2. In knowledge—a disciple. Col. 1:9.
3. In character—a saint. Rom. 1:7.

12. In expectation—an heir. 1 Pet. 1:3-7.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 42

Miracles of Jesus
(READ JOHN 2)

We have now examined all points on practical Christianity.

As it was once said of some of the apostles, "They took knowledge of them that they had been with Jesus," we think it wise to devote several lessons to the life work of the Son of God.

This lesson will deal with miracles. We have thirty-five recorded miracles of Jesus. As sometimes we find only one writer mentioning one, then sometimes two or all we have thought best to catalogue them all and give the place where they were spoken.

The first miracle was turning water into wine.

Then the nobleman's son cured, the demoniac cured, Peter's wife's mother healed, the great draught of fishes, the leper cleansed, the palsy cured, the healing at Bethesda, the withered hand restored, the centurion's servant healed, and the demoniac cured. Twelve in number. Let each case be so studied that the pupil can give chapter and verse where to find it and be able, to tell the miracle by memory.

QUESTIONS

1. Tell about water being turned into wine at Cana. Jno. 2:1-11.
2. Give account of nobleman's son cured at Capernaum. Jno. 4:46-64.
3. Tell about the healing of the demoniac at Capernaum. Mark 1:22-28.
4. Tell where and relate the circumstances of the healing of Peter's mother-in-law. Mark 1:3-31.
5. Tell of the fishes at Bethesda. Luke 5:1-11.
6. Tell of the leper cured at Capernaum. Mark 1:40-45.
7. Tell of the palsy. Matt. 9:1-8.
8. Tell of the healing at Bethesda in Jerusalem. John 5:1-9.
9. Tell of the withered hand. Matt. 12:10-13.
10. Tell of the centurion's servant. Matt. 8:5-13.
11. Of the widow's son raised at Nain. Luke 7:11-17.
12. Of a demoniac cured at Capernaum. Matt. 12:23-24.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 43

Second Lesson on Miracles
(READ MATT. 8)

The thirteenth miracle performed by the Son of God and recorded is stilling the winds on Galilee in the time of a storm. After crossing the sea he cast out some devils, cured an afflicted woman, raised from the dead the ruler's daughter, healed two blind men, cast out a dumb spirit, fed five thousand who came to hear him, walked on the sea, cured the Syro-Phoenician child, cast out a deaf and dumb spirit, fed four thousand, and opened the eyes of two blind men at Bethesda. It seems by this time that nothing would have been able to convince the great multitude that thronged Jesus that he was not the Son of God, as everything in nature was obedient to his command.

QUESTIONS

13. Tell of the tempest. Matt. 8:23-27.
14. Tell of the devils cast out. Matt. 8:28-34.
15. Of the woman cured. Luke 8:43.
16. Of the ruler's daughter raised at Capernaum. Matt. 9:23-26.

18. Tell of the dumb spirit cast out. Matt. 9:32-33.
19. Tell of the feeding of the five thousand. Matt. 14:15-21.
20. Tell of Jesus walking on the sea. Matt. 15:22-23.
21. Tell of the Syro-Phoenician child cured, near Tyre. Matt. 15:22-28.
22. What did Jesus do at Decapolis? Mark 7:31-37.
23. Tell of the feeding of the four thousand at Decapolis. Matt. 15:32-39.
24. Tell of the giving of sight to two blind men at Bethesda. Mark 13:22-26.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 44

Third Lesson on Miracles
(READ JOHN 11)

"We are now nearing the end of the life of Jesus upon earth. For almost two years we have noted the miracles performed; and notwithstanding all of them were performed without charge, but to benefit the persons upon whom they were performed, we find much complaint against the Son of God by religious people and by those whom he condemned for their evil practices, on account of the good things he did.

This should cause us to remember that men are often condemned by the world; for no one can do the will of God and at the same time meet the approval of the world.

The twenty-fifth recorded miracle of Jesus is curing a child near Mount Hermon.

Then we find Peter catching a fish with money in its mouth to pay the tax of the Son of God. Then we see him giving sight to two blind men, raising his friend, Lazarus, after he had been dead four days, healing the infirm woman, curing the dropsy, healing ten lepers, giving sight to blind Bartimaeus, cursing the fig tree, restoring the ear of Malchus that Peter cut off when they came to arrest Jesus, and catching the great load of fishes after his resurrection.

This closes the miracles performed by Jesus while on earth. It is grand to contemplate such a life, and should give all a desire to be with Jesus.

QUESTIONS

25. Tell of the child cured. Matt. 17:14-21.
26. Tell of the catching of the fish with the money in its mouth. Matt. 17:27.
27. Tell of the man born blind. John 9:27.
28. Tell about raising Lazarus. John 11:1-46.
29. Tell of Jesus healing the infirm woman.
30. Tell of his curing the dropsy.
31. Tell of the ten lepers cured. Luke 17:1-6.
32. Tell of sight given to Bartimaeus at Jericho. Matt. 20:30-34.
33. Tell of the barren fig tree at Mt. Olives. Matt. 21:18-22.
34. Tell of the servant's ear restored in the garden. Luke 22:50-51.
35. Tell of his last miracle on the Sea of Galilee. Jno. 21:1-14.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 45

Parables
(READ MATT. 13)

We have now examined the miraculous part of the life work of the Son of God while on earth, and find that he performed thirty-five miracles that are recorded, and at sixteen different places.

We now take up his life work as he taught in parables, and find thirty-seven parables recorded, yet they were all taught at only three different places.

A parable is an illustration, a comparison, taking up something that we are familiar with to illustrate something that we do not understand.

Jesus starts in this comparing manner with the two houses, as taught in Matt. 7. Then he illustrates by the new cloth on old garments, the new wine in old bottles, the sower, the tares, the mustard seed, the leaven, the hidden treasure, the pearl of great price, the fish net, the unmerciful servant, and the laborers in the vineyard. All of these parables are plain and simple and easily understood by the simplest mind, and given to a class perfectly familiar with the subjects from which he drew the lesson.

Second Lesson on Parables

(READ MATT. 25)

We begin this lesson with the thirteenth parable of our Lord. He illustrated to the Jews their work as compared with the work of the Gentiles. The Savior then represents them under the head of a wicked husbandman. He then talks of the marriage feast, tells of the ten virgins waiting for the bridegroom, of the slothful servant, of the sheep and goats, of the seed secretly growing, of the householder, the two debtors, of the good Samaritan, and of the friend at midnight, of the rich fool.

In these twelve parables almost every shade of practical life is covered, 60 no one could have an excuse to say, "His lessons did not apply to me."

QUESTIONS

1. Tell of the parables of the two sons. Matt. 21:28-32.
2. Tell of the wicked husbandman. Matt. 21:33-46.

Third Lesson on Parables

(READ LUKE 16)

We now examine the last thirteen parables as taught by the Savior while on earth. We know that they were most all proclaimed by him while at Jerusalem.

As almost all the leading events in the life of Christ are involved in his miracles and parables, if we would desire to be familiar with his life work while on earth we can commence committing to memory the history of each miracle, the book and chapter where it is found, then take up the parables in like manner, and in a few weeks we will have the leading events in the life of Christ so stamped upon our memory that we can readily recall them all.

Our twenty-fifth parable tells of the wedding feast. Then we read of the wise steward, of the barren fig tree, the great supper, the lost sheep, the piece of money, the prodigal son, the unjust steward, the rich man and Lazarus, the unprofitable servant, the unjust judge, the Pharisee and publicans, and the pounds. This closes the thirty-seven parables as taught by the Son of God.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 48

The Ten Prayers of the Son of God (READ JOHN 17)

We now examine the life of Christ in prayer. We have ten different prayers of Jesus, covering all things in life necessary for our happiness.

He, being our Savior, acquainted with grief and a man of sorrow and possessing all power, often found it necessary to engage in prayer to his Father for strength; to pray for his followers, for the world and for his enemies. If we would imitate his example we should, also, as his followers, often be found engaging in prayer.

Not only do we find the Savior a man of prayer, but nearly all great men of past ages we find spent much of their time in prayer.

If we would desire to walk with God and have much power over men, we should often spend time in prayer.

In the early work of the Son of God we find him rising long before day, and going out to pray. Then, after performing miracles in the wilderness, we find him praying. Before choosing the twelve he is found in prayer. He prayed after feeding the five thousand, at the mount of transfiguration, at the grave of Lazarus, for Peter, for his disciples before his betrayal, and even on the cross we find the Son of God praying for his enemies. In solitary prayer in the wilderness, in the mountain at Bethany, at the last supper, in the garden of Gethsemane, and on the cross do we hear the Son of Mary praying to the Father of light in whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

QUESTIONS

1. Tell of Jesus' first recorded prayer. Mark 1:35.
2. Tell of his prayer in the wilderness. Luke 5:16.
3. Tell of his prayer in the mountain before choosing the twelve. Luke 6:12.
4. Tell of his prayer after feeding the five thousand. Matt. 14:23.
5. Tell of his prayer at Mt. Hermon at the transfiguration. Luke 9:29.

6. Tell of his prayer at the grave at Lazarus. John 11:41-42.
7. Tell of his prayer for Peter at the last supper. Luke 22:32.
8. Tell of his prayer for his disciples. John 17:1-26.
9. Tell of his night of prayer in Gethsemane. Luke 22:42-44.
10. Tell of his prayer on the cross for his enemies. Luke 23:24.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 49

Fifteen Warnings of Jesus
(READ LUKE 12)

In the life and teachings of Jesus, not only has he pointed out the way that leads to life and tells us how to come into this highway of holiness, and how to walk therein, but in order to encourage us to greater deeds of usefulness he gives us different warnings against different sins.

If a man has the way placed before him, and the obstructions that cross, that way pointed out to him to avoid them, and continues in the way that leads to God, he will enter heaven at last.

So Jesus warns us on fifteen different occasions of dangers and deceptions, to ever have them before us as guides to help us keep on the narrow way.

We shall examine them in order given in this and our next lesson.

The first warning Jesus gives is in Matt. 7. He warns us against false prophets, then against wicked men, and then tells of the impending doom of certain cities. He then warns against riches, and the danger of abundance, the danger of flattery, the danger of the doctrines of the Pharisees, or of the human religions. As some of these dangers may apply to us we should closely examine our lives and measure them by the word of God, to see if we are prepared to meet them when they come.

QUESTIONS

1. What kind of prophets does Jesus warn us against? Matt. 7:15.
2. Against what kind of men does he warn his disciples? Matt. 10:17.
3. Tell why the cities of Galilee were doomed. Matt. 11:20-24.
4. Why should we fear riches? Luke 6:24.
5. Why should we fear to have abundance? Luke 6:25.
6. Why should we fear to be flattered? Luke 6:2.
7. What warning did Jesus give his disciples about the Pharisees? Luke 12:1.

THIRD YEAR — SUBJECT 50

The Last Warnings of the Son of God
(READ MATT. 26)

Among the great sins Jesus taught us against, and to which the Holy Spirit often referred, was the sin of covetousness. Adultery, drunkenness, and murder do not seem to be condemned any more in the sight of God than the sin of covetousness.

God ordained that his children must give as they have been prospered. When one man and his wife gave a part instead of all, they were put to death for lying.

QUESTIONS

Warnings:

8. What warning does Jesus give us against covetousness? Luke 12:15.
9. What warning did he give about the scribes? Mark 12:38.
10. What did he say about false christs? Mark 13:5-6.
11. What did he teach about hypocrites? Matt. 23:13-33.
12. What did he teach on self-denial? John 13:36-38.
13. What awful fate did he pronounce against Judas? Matt. 26:24.
14. What did he say about the destruction of Jerusalem? Matt. 26:34-39.
15. Who is to receive eternal death? Matt. 25:31-46.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 51

Blessings Promised to the Child of God
(READ JOHN 14)

This year we have been traveling with the Son of God in his life here and in his church, and with the people associated with them.

By this time I trust all have learned whom we should obey, what book to study, whose church to be a member of, what to do to be saved, and how to live while traveling on this side of the river of death.

I trust that we may be as some of old when condemned for preaching in the name of Jesus, and the people saw their boldness and heard what they said. The Book says: "They took knowledge of them that they had been with Christ."

But after all the same question comes to us today that came to Peter when he said, "Lord, we have left all and followed thee. What shall we have therefore?"

So, in order to encourage all to do the Master's will, Jesus lays down fourteen promises or blessings to those who will follow him, and for our comfort we examine them in the close of our Bible studies.

When Jesus first met Peter and John he said, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then we have the promise of eternal life to believers. He is the "bread of life," and when we eat of him we shall never faint. He is the "water of life." We all know that when tired, hot and weary how pleasant it is to get into a beautiful shady place and drink cool water to quench our thirst.

When tired and hungry, how refreshing to eat of the good things of this life. Yet all these Jesus claims to be to those who follow him. Not only these, but every thing we ask for that will give us real pleasure and happiness, and that are for our good he promises to give us.

Often times when we grow weary, and the burdens of life are so heavy upon us, and the demands upon us are so great that we find no rest, but day after day we must toil on, Jesus comes to us and says, "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

When we look at the little children that God gives to the homes of this life, and know they are the joy and sunshine to all where found, we hear Jesus saying, "Suffer the little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

Then if heaven is a place where all our wants and needs are supplied to make us eternally happy, who would not desire to make themselves ready to go there?

QUESTIONS

1. What promise did Jesus make to Peter and John? Matt. 4:19.
2. What promise does he offer the believer? Jno. 3:14-16.
3. What does he offer to the hungry? Jno. 6:48-51.
4. What blessing offered the thirsty? John 7:37.
5. What does he offer the seekers? Matt. 7:7-12.
6. What does he offer to the weary? Matt. 9:28-30.
7. What does he want children to do? Mark 10:13-16.

THIRD YEAR—SUBJECT 52

Our Home in Heaven
(READ REV. 22)

For three years we have been trying to teach the young of Jesus, of heaven, of our work here, and of a hope to meet on the other side of the river of death.

I am sure thousands will study these lessons that I will never meet on this earth, but if they will follow the lessons presented here, I hope, after all have crossed the sea of life, after all of life's battles shall have been fought, and victory is won, that we may yet meet in the city of our God, where every want shall be supplied, where death is unknown, and all will be love, joy and peace at the right hand of God.

Then for our final encouragement we examine today and find that Jesus, knowing how quick his followers might forget him, and how often we make mistakes without some one to lead us, not only left his law to guide us, but promised to send the Holy Spirit to comfort and lead us until we reach his home in heaven.

This Spirit was to be another comforter, and to heal the wounds of the disciples that his death would give them. It was also to lead them into salvation and remain with them forever.

After getting home he tells us there we shall find the tree of life, and the water of life, that no darkness enters that home, no sickness is found, and no death is known there, and God shall be with us and wipe away all tears.

These are the blessings and promises God leaves to those who follow him.

If I have heard the word of God, have believed in him, have repented of my sins, have confessed the Savior, have been baptized for remission of sins, and I continue to live righteously, soberly and godly in this world, not one of these blessings shall fail. Then let us all work to that end that all may meet at home in the city of our God.
