EXODUS OUTLINE
BY: FRANKLIN CAMP

The promise had come through Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and the descendants of Jacob had now grown in number. They were to be formed into the redemptive nation. The book of Exodus gives this account.

I. The picture of sin.

The picture of sin is given in the book of Exodus, showing it as a task master, holding men in bondage, hard and cruel.

II. The people - the nation a channel of redemption

Hear the people cry beneath the load and the burden of their hard task masters. This is but an illustration of the statement of Christ in Matthew 5:3, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of God."

IV. The preaching of redemption:

Moses was called, commissioned, and confirmed by God to reveal unto the nation of Israel his covenant. "Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God." (Rom. 10:17).

V. The price of redemption - blood:

The passover lamb was an example and an illustration of the cost of redemption - Exodus 12.

VI. The penalty of rejecting redemption - death, shown in Exodus 12.

VII. The passover, a memorial of redemption - Exodus 12:

They were to tell their children the meaning of the memorial feast of passover.

VIII. The point of redemption - that is, the significance of it:

It is threefold: salvation, separation, and service.
IX. The pure worship required of the redeemed - Exodus 20:

The Ten Commandments underscore the importance of pure worship in one's relationship and service to God.

X. Personal relationships:

The first four commandments have to do with one's relationship to God. The second part of the Ten Commandments has to do with inter-relationships with other people. In order for there to be proper relationships with others, one must begin with a correct relationship with God.

XI. Pleasing God through willing and whole-hearted gifts and service:

This is shown in their free-will offerings for the building of the tabernacle. Their liberality was such until Moses had to stop them.

XII. The pillar of fire and cloud:

Here one has divine direction and protection.
The Book of Exodus—Introduction
Week One

I. Exodus
   A. Exodus is the second book of the Pentateuch.
   B. Exodus means "out of the way", "way out", or "departure".

II. Author: Moses
   A. Exodus 17:14; 24:4

III. Purpose
   A. Exodus furnishes us a vivid description of God delivering Israel out of Egypt.
   B. The book introduces a new period, the Mosaic, and at the outset gives us the first great leader of Israel.

IV. Themes of Exodus:
   A. Deliverance
   B. Law

V. Time
   A. The book of Exodus covers 145 years, from the king that knew not Joseph to the building of the tabernacle.
   B. The Exodus - 1491 B.C., Usher's chronology.

VI. Three Outstanding Characters in the Book of Exodus:
   A. Moses
   B. Aaron
   C. Pharaoh
The Egyptian Bondage

Introduction

1. The name "Joseph" means "increaser" or "adding."

2. Joseph was the son of Jacob and Rachel, and was born in Haran in the year 1746 B.C., Usher's chronology.

3. The rulers, or Pharaohs, of Egypt, at the time that Joseph was sold into that country, were the Asiatic Hyksos, or the Shepherd Kings. From their capital city of Avaris in the Nile Delta they ruled parts of Western Asia as well as Egypt. The introduction of the horse and chariot and the concept of Empire were important Hyksos contributions to Egypt culture. Shepherds were also welcomed into the country, and this accounts for the warm reception given Jacob and his sons.

I. The Egyptian Bondage Before The Death of Joseph

A. Joseph sold (Gen. 37:1-36).
B. Joseph tried (Gen. 39:1-23).
C. Joseph interprets dreams (Gen. 40:1-41:38).
D. Joseph exalted (Gen. 41:39-57).
E. Joseph meets his brethren (Gen. 42:1-26).
G. Joseph's brethren go into Egypt a second time (Gen. 43:15-34).
I. Jacob is brought into Egypt (Gen. 45:25-49).
J. Joseph's death (Gen. 50:22-26).

I. The Passover

A. Name

1. Passover—a passing over, sparing, deliverance.

2. It is called the Passover because the Lord passed over and spared the houses of the children of Israel, while he smote the Egyptians.

B. Various uses and applications

1. Paschal Lamb (Ex. 12:21)

2. Paschal Supper (Num. 33:3)

C. Chronology of the Passover

1. On the tenth day of the first month (Nisan or Abib) the father of each family was required to select a lamb or a kid (a lamb was generally taken) from his flock and to keep it up till the fourteenth day of the same month. (Exception—see Numbers 9:9-11; II Chron. 30:1-27)

2. On the fourteenth day of the month, between the two evenings, the lamb was to be killed by its owner, or by one of the Levites (II Chron. 30:17). The usual time of killing the lamb was at three o'clock in the afternoon.

3. On the same day they began to eat the Paschal Supper, which seems to have been continued into the fifteenth (Lev. 23:5; Numbers 33:3; Josh. 5:10, 11; Luke 22:8; John 13:1-30).

4. On the fifteenth day of the month began the Feast of Unleavened Bread and continued, ordinarily seven days (Lev. 23:4-8). But in one case it lasted fourteen days (II Chron. 30:23).

D. Kind and Qualities of the Victim

1. Male lamb or kid of the first year

2. Must be without blemish.

E. The Blood

1. At the first Passover the blood was sprinkled on the lintel and doorposts.

2. But after that it was sprinkled at the foot of the altar by the priests (II Chron. 30:16).

F. Persons allowed to partake of it.

1. Only circumcised and clean persons were ordinarily allowed to partake of it (Numbers 9:1-13).

2. Exception (II Chron. 30:17).

G. Ceremony of the first Passover.

1. The first Passover was eaten by the Israelites while standing, with their shoes on their feet and their staves in their hands.

2. It was eaten with unleavened bread and bitter herbs to remind them of their haste and bondage.

H. The object of the Passover seems to have been threefold: 1) Commemorative; 2) educational; and 3) typical.

1. Its primary object was to commemorate the Lord's passing over and sparing the children of Israel while He slew the first-born of the Egyptians.

2. The Passover was also a divinely ordained means for education of their children (Ex. 12:26-28).

3. The Paschal lamb was typical of Christ. See section II.

II. The Paschal lamb was in several respects typical of Christ (I Cor. 5:7).
   A. It was without blemish and so was He (I Peter 1:19).
   B. It was killed between the two evenings, and so was He (Matt. 27:45-50).
   C. Its blood procured salvation and deliverance, and so did His (I Pet. 1:18,19).
   D. Not a bone of it was broken, nor was one of His (John 19:36).
   E. There may be other points of intended resemblance, but those given are sufficient for our study.

III. From Egypt to Mount Sinai
   A. Preparations for the exodus (Ex. 12:29-46).
