PREFACE

Great works of literature by good men deserve to be perpetuated. This idea has prompted the present edition of THE NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH by Geo. W. Butterfield.

The author passed to his reward soon after having finished this work. Several thousand copies of the first editions have been used and highly appraised by Bible scholars and students alike. For the past few years the book has been out of print, and not available.

At the suggestion of interested persons, the present publishers completed arrangements with the author's widow, Mrs. Emma C. Butterfield, to again make the work available to the public. She is being remunerated, in a small way, for allowing us to reprint the book. It goes forth with a hope that many persons will be blessed through a study of its contents. We believe that the author's faith in God's Word, as expressed through the pages of this book, stands as a monument to his memory.

The introduction by Oliver Johnson which follows, and the remaining pages are an exact lithographic reproduction of the original edition. Only this Preface and the Table of Contents have been added by the present publishers.

—THE PUBLISHERS.

INTRODUCTION

The personality of the author Geo. W. Butterfield is a strong and striking personality. He is a commanding figure among the preachers of the Church of Christ. He has what may be termed a well-poised mind. It cannot be stirred by petty questions, such as occupy attention of small souls, but is awakened by great thoughts, and, when aroused, it moves with a powerful momentum. He is logical, clear, incisive, original, and withal exceedingly forceful in his presentation of truth. He is especially quick in his perceptions of spiritual verities. His powers of heart are no less striking than powers of mind. Such, I think, will be the verdict of all who will study these sermon outlines.

The stimulating power of a great mind and idea is forcibly illustrated in these outlines. The Divine authority and all sufficiency of the Scriptures, the Lordship of Jesus, the name, creed, and the ordinances of the church, —all in fact that necessarily cluster around the great central plea, and serve to make it a practical possibility—he has most firmly grasped and most firmly held. Such outlines have great practical values.

The forecast for this volume must, therefore, be peculiarly favorable, since these factors enter into its production at their maximum strength. The consideration of the value of these factors as they influence these outlines must, therefore both Swollen a deep interest in the student, and create a large expectation which, we venture to say, will be met by a careful study of the following outlines.

The importance of the subjects outlined need not be dwelt upon. This will be better understood by a careful study of the volume itself. Ill I mistake not, it will be the verdict of all who read and study these outlines, that they are of vast and far-reaching importance, and truths of profound import, are set forth in a masterly way.

THE NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH ITS ORIGIN

I. The Church Is Of Divine Origin.

1. The idea of creating the church originated in the mind of God.
2. Man did not think of it. The idea of the church was new to man. Jesus had taught his apostles for three and a half years, yet they did not grasp the idea of the establishment of the church until they had been "endued with power from on high." (Acts 1:6-8).
3. Man would not have thought of it. The idea seems to be contrary to the thoughts of men. They do not see that the church is necessary for their salvation.
4. If the church had been of human origin, it would have failed.
5. The establishment of the church was not dependent upon the wisdom of men. The Lord would not permit the apostles to begin their work until they had been "endowed with power from on high." (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:6-9; 2:1-3).

II. The New Testament Church is The Original Church.

1. Date of origin: Day of Pentecost, A. D. 33. (Acts 2:47).
2. Any church that originated later than the above date is not the church of the New Testament.
3. Churches of later date have some of the original doctrines, but many errors, also.

III. By Whom Was It Built?

1. The Lord. (Psa. 127:1; Matt. 16:18).
2. The churches of modern times were built by man. The Church of the New Testament was built by the Son of God. (Acts 2:47).

IV. Where Was The New Testament Church First Established?

1. Jerusalem. (Acts 2:1-5; Luke 24:46-49).
2. Zion. (1 Pet. 2:6; Isa. 46:13).
3. Any church established elsewhere is not the New Testament Church.

V. The Church That Was Established at Jerusalem on The day of Pentecost By The Apostles of Christ Was The Original Church.

1. It was the model congregation. (1 Thess. 2:14).
2. It met the approval of God.
3. Every congregation that meets the approval of God must be "built according to the pattern" shown us at Jerusalem.

VI. The New Testament Church Was a New and Original Institution.

1. The church was not a remodeled house, but it was a new building in which the Lord placed new blessings. The Lord did not "put new wine in old bottles." (Matt. 9:17).

VII. The Original Church Was Equipped With Everything Necessary For Its Existence, Edification and Perpetuation.

1. "Ye are complete in Him." (Col. 2:10).
2. Scriptures "completely furnished" man of God unto every good work. (2 Tim. 3:16, 17).

THE NEW TESTAMENT CHURCH ITS PURPOSE

1. The Church Was a Part of God's Eternal Purpose.

(Eph. 1:9, 10; 3:1-12; Acts 15:13-18; Col. 1:24-29).

1. The church was not all accident, nor all "after-thought" on God's part, as result of Jews rejecting Christ as King.
2. It is not a substitute for all earthly kingdom in Canaan.
3. The church has all important place in the scheme of redemption.
4. The death of Jesus and the establishment of the church were "by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God." (Acts 2:23; 4:28).

II. God's Purpose In Establishing The Church.

1. To "gather in one (body) all things in Christ." (Eph. 1:10).

4. That the church would glorify God through Christ. (Eph.3: 21)
5. To make a new creation in Christ. (2 Cor. 5: 17; Eph. 2: 10).

111. THE Church Was Not Established For The Purpose:

1. Of entertaining people. It should not be in the show business.
2. Of raising money. It is not in the merchandising business.
3. Of promoting social activities.
4. Of promoting athletic contests. It is not a recreational center.

2. A soul-saving institution. (Acts 2:47; 4:11, 12).
3. A people for the Lord's name. (Acts 15:13-18; Rom. 1:5, b).

8. The care-taker of God's poor. (Matt. 25: 31-40; Acts 4:32-37).
9. The light of the world. (Matt. 5:14-16; Phil. 2:12-16).

V. God's Eternal Purpose in Establishing The New Testament Church:

1. Predicted by the prophets. (Ps. 118:22-24; Isa. 2:2-4; 9:6-7; 11:1-10; 35:8-10; 42:1-9; 46:13; 56:5; 62:1-4; Dan. 2:44; 7: 9, 10; Joel 2: 28-32).
2. Promised by Christ. (Matt.5:13-16; 16:18,28; John 10:15,16; Luke 24:25-27, 46, 47; Acts 1:6-8).
3. Revealed to the apostles and prophets by the Spirit. (Acts 1:6-9; 2 :1-4; Eph. 3 :1-11; Rom. 16: 25, 26; 2 Tim. 1: 9-11; 1 Pet. 1:10-12.)
4. Recorded for our instruction. (2 Tim. 3:16, 17; 1 John 5:13).

VI. The New Testament Church Is The Only Institution That Can Serve God's Purpose:

1. "To gather in ONE (body) all things in Christ." (Eph. 1:10).
2. To glorify God "in the church by Jesus Christ throughout all ages, world without end." (Eph. 3:21).
3. To be the "pillar and ground of the truth." (1 Tim. 3:15).
4. To save the souls of sinful men. (Rev. 22:17; Acts 4:11, 12).

 - (a) Pharisee doctrine produced Pharisees; Sadducee doctrine produced Sadducees; Mormon doctrine produces Mormons; Baptist doctrine produces Baptists; Christian doctrine produces Christians.
 - (b) You cannot produce a Baptist by teaching the Book of Mormon; neither can you produce Baptists, Methodists, Mormons, etc., by teaching Christian doctrine—the doctrine of Christ, the New Testament.

3. It could not be moved (shaken A.R.V.) (Heb. 12:28).
4. There are over six hundred religious bodies in the world. There could not be so many counterfeit bodies, if the genuine New Testament church was not in existence. The presence of the counterfeit is proof that the genuine exists.

II. Only One Religious Body Can Be Identical With the New Testament Church.

1. Every religious body bears one or more points of resemblance to the New Testament church.
